

Chief Judge

The Chief Judge is the head official and is in charge of contacting the voting location and the other officials to make arrangements for each election. The Chief Judge is responsible for handling Election Day activities, assigning duties, solving problems, and accountable for certification of the Election results from their precinct. This individual is also responsible for picking up Election Day supplies prior to each election and returning supplies after the polls close. The Chief Judge must study and be knowledgeable of all election laws, procedures and materials. Mandatory instructional training will be provided for each election. Two year appointment from August to August of odd-numbered years.

Judges

The Judges work closely with the Chief Judge. They must study and be knowledgeable of all election laws, procedures and materials. All Precinct Judges must sign all official documents and serve as a quasi-judicial body to solve any challenges. Precinct Judges must be accountable for the certification of Election results from their precinct. Mandatory instructional training will be provided for each election. Two year appointment from August to August of odd-numbered years.

Assistants

The Assistants serve when needed and at the direction of the Chief Judge. They will serve as greeters, machine attendants, curbside attendants, etc. They may be required to attend instructional training for each election.

Precinct Election Officials

Every election the Craven County Board of Elections conducts, and needs people to work during an election. These are the people who ask the voters to state their name & address, oversee the voting machines, and assist the voters in casting their ballots.

Each Election Day voting polling site is staffed with a Chief Judge, two Party Judges, and a number of other assistants. The Chief Judge is of the same political party as the Governor of North Carolina. The two Judges are from different political parties, and the assistants are equally selected from the two political parties, whenever possible. The (3) Precinct Judges are responsible for the conducting of the election, and for overseeing the election process for each precinct's voting tabulation district.

Special Information:

- Precinct Election Officials are currently compensated.
- Election Day is currently on a Tuesday. Polls open at 6:30 a.m. and close at 7:30 p.m.
- All precinct officials must be at their voting location at least by 5:45 a.m. and must remain there until all votes have been counted and documents signed, unless other duties have been assigned to particular individuals
- Smoking is not allowed in the polling place
- No campaign or political buttons, jewelry, or other material can be worn by precinct election officials
- Discussion of politics of any kind is NOT permitted while working as a precinct election official during any election day
