WATER CONSERVATION PLAN WORK SESSION

Water Superintendent, Rusty Hayes and Consultant, Linda Staunch, made the presentation. Mr. Hayes introduced the members of the Water Conservation Committee, as follows: Kirby Braxton, Mayor Kirkland, Tammy Boyd, Sue Book and Harold Blizzard. A power point presentation was given on the background and status of the Committee’s efforts to date. The County was asked to endorse the recommendations of the committee, to determine the future role of the committee, and to determine collaborative activities with utilities and other governmental units. Following the presentation, Ms. Staunch recognized other members of the committee not present, as follows: Frank Sheffield, Patrick Baker, Larry Baldwin, Tom Glasgow, Pam Hawkins, Andy Metts, Cheryl Murray, David Muse, Kip Peragoy, Ray Silverthorne and Tammy Calhoon. She reported that the website for the committee is www.water-lessmeansmore.com. Commissioner Tyson inquired if the incremental mandated reductions in water usage take into account population growth. Mr. Hayes responded that they do not, that the levels of reduction that are expected of local governments are the same irrespective of increasing populations. Commissioner Jones commented that the growth issues in relationship to water conservation would most likely require the County to explore zoning at some point. Commissioner Allen moved to allow the committee to go forward and to endorse its recommended plan, which includes advertising and promotion, seconded by Commissioner Jones and unanimously carried.

At 10:50 a.m. Commissioner Morris moved to adjourn, seconded by Commissioner Tyson and unanimously carried.
