Craven County Register of Deeds Office Temporarily Closed

NEW BERN, N.C. – The Craven County Register of Deeds office is temporarily closed until further notice due to COVID-19 exposure. Sherri Richard, Register of Deeds and her staff are working with Craven County's Information Technology department, Courthouse Computer Systems, and eRecording partners to be able to eRecord documents remotely in the very near future. Document recording will be unavailable in Craven County until a remote eRecording process is established.

Anyone needing a marriage license or a birth certificate for someone born after 1971 should be able to obtain those items from one of Craven County's surrounding counties.

The Craven County Register of Deeds office is working with the Craven County Health Department and the office will reopen when health and safety permit. Please visit the Register of Deeds website at <https://www.cravencountync.gov/303/Register-of-Deeds> for information on alternative service arrangements.
