County	Location	Hours	Scheduled Through
Richmond	Richmond Community College, Cole Auditorium, 1042 W. Hamlet Ave., Hamlet, NC 28345	9 a.m. to 6 p.m.	Mon., Oct. 22 through Wed., Oct. 24

U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA)

The SBA offers low-interest disaster loans to businesses of all sizes, nonprofits, homeowners and renters to cover uninsured or uncompensated losses or damage from Florence. After registering for disaster assistance, applicants may be referred to the SBA. There’s no obligation to accept a loan, but you may miss out on the largest source of federal disaster recovery funds. Those who don’t qualify for an SBA disaster loan may be referred back to FEMA for certain other grants.

SBA Business Recovery Centers (BRCs)

The SBA has opened 10 BRCs to help businesses affected by Florence. Hours and locations follow:

Transitional Sheltering Assistance (TSA)

The Transitional Sheltering Assistance program provides short-term hotel stays to survivors who were displaced from their homes and need shelter while they look for longer-term housing.

- TSA is available to eligible survivors whose pre-disaster primary residence is in one of the following nine counties: Brunswick, Carteret, Columbus, Craven, Jones, New Hanover, Onslow, Pender or Robeson.
- Survivors will be notified of their eligibility through an automated phone call, text message, and/or email depending upon the method of communication they selected when they registered for assistance. Or call the disaster assistance helpline at 800-621-3362 or 800-462-7585 (TTY).

Direct Temporary Housing Assistance

Based upon the needs identified by the State of North Carolina, FEMA is providing two forms of Direct Temporary Housing Assistance in 10 counties: Brunswick, Carteret, Columbus, Craven, Duplin, Jones, Onslow, Pender, New Hanover and Robeson. The two forms are:

- Travel Trailers provide a timely, effective interim solution for most households with a high degree of confidence that repairs to their home can be completed in less than a year, ideally within six months.
- Manufactured Housing Units (MHUs) provide a longer-term solution for survivors whose repairs will take longer to complete due to greater degree of damage.

Survivors displaced from their homes due to Hurricane Florence must first apply for disaster assistance to be considered for FEMA programs. Apply online at DisasterAssistance.gov or by calling the disaster assistance helpline at 800-621- 3362 or 800-462-7585 (TTY).

U.S. Housing and Urban Development (HUD)

North Carolinians living in HUD-assisted housing who were affected by Hurricane Florence may call 800-304-9320 to learn about resources. Survivors can also email recovery@hud.gov to contact HUD. To apply for disaster assistance online, go to DisasterAssistance.gov (English) or DisasterAssistance.gov/es (Spanish). Or call 800-621-3362 or 800-462-7585 (TTY).

Crisis Cleanup

Homeowners affected by Florence who need help clearing disaster debris, tarping disaster-damaged roofs, or cleaning up their disaster-damaged homes may call Crisis Cleanup at 800-451-1954 to be paired with voluntary agencies. All services are free.

Disaster Legal Services

Free legal services are available for low-income survivors of Hurricane Florence. For legal assistance, call the Disaster Legal Hotline at 833-242-3549.

Disaster Distress Helpline

If you're feeling stressed or overwhelmed by Florence, call the Disaster Distress Helpline at 800-985-5990 any time day or night to speak with a trained crisis counselor. Or text TalkWithUs to 66746. For Spanish, text Hablanos to 66746.

Disaster Assistance for Farmers and Ranchers

Along with FEMA grants and SBA loans, farmers and ranchers are eligible to apply for emergency loans through the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Farm Service Agency (FSA). For more information, go online to fsa.usda.gov or visit the nearest FSA office.

Disaster Unemployment Assistance (DUA)

If you're out of work or lost income due to Florence, you now have more time to apply for DUA, which helps those who do not qualify for regular unemployment benefits—such as farm laborers and small business owners. To apply, call 866-795-8877. For more information, visit the state's Division of Employment Security. The deadline to apply has been extended to Oct. 31, 2018.

Unmet Needs

FEMA works closely with state, federal, faith-based and voluntary agency partners. Survivors who do not qualify for FEMA disaster assistance may call 2-1-1, the statewide information and referral service for basic unmet needs.

Disaster Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (D-SNAP)

Residents in the newly designated counties of Anson, Orange and Union who were impacted by Hurricane Florence can apply for help buying food through D-SNAP. Applications will be accepted today through Oct. 30, 2018.

- For more information about D-SNAP eligibility and guidance, call 866-719-0141.
- For a list of the three D-SNAP locations and hours, go to the NC Department of Health and Human Services website.

Mitigation Outreach

Disaster survivors can get tips and advice on how to rebuild stronger against future storm damage from FEMA flood mitigation specialists at Disaster Recovery Centers and at select hardware and home improvement stores for a limited time. Their schedule follows:

National Flood Insurance Program

To help speed recovery, the National Flood Insurance Program is allowing advanced payments up to $5,000 to policyholders on their flood insurance claims, without an adjuster visit or additional documentation. NFIP policyholders who have not yet filed a claim should call their agent or insurance company and file immediately. Policyholders who need assistance contacting their insurance company can contact the NFIP Call Center at 800-427-4661.

Insurance Hotline

If you need help with your insurance claim or settlements, call the North Carolina Department of Insurance at 855-408-1212. For more information, go to NCHurriClaims.com.

Public Assistance

FEMA's Public Assistance program reimburses state, local and tribal governments, as well as certain private non-profit organizations for the costs of debris removal, emergency protective measures and the repair or replacement of disaster-damaged infrastructure.

Government entities and non-profit organizations must provide a formal Request for Public Assistance to the State of North Carolina to be considered for a grant. The deadlines are:

- November 11: for Alleghany, Anson, Ashe, Cabarrus, Chatham, Dare, Granville, Montgomery, Person, Randolph, Stanly, Union, and Yancey counties.
- November 16: Beaufort, Bladen, Brunswick, Carteret, Columbus, Craven, Cumberland, Duplin, Greene, Harnett, Hoke, Hyde, Johnston, Jones, Lee, Lenoir, Moore, New Hanover, Onslow, Pamlico, Pender, Pitt, Richmond, Robeson, Sampson, Scotland, Wayne, and Wilson counties.

Disaster Fraud Hotline

If you suspect fraud, waste, abuse or mismanagement of disaster relief operations, call the Disaster Fraud Hotline at 866-720-5721. (Calls can be made anonymously and confidentially.)
